TIMELESS TASTE MEETS MODERN SENSIBILITY

Step back in time to an era when area rug patterns told epic stories, representing the rich heritage of nomadic tribes and royal families with centuries of history. Paying homage to the ornate caliber of workmanship seen in these classic Persian designs, Couristan has a wide selection of vintage-inspired wool and Courtron™ polypropylene area rugs that showcase authentic old world details. With a subtle modern-day makeover that includes updated colorways and a sturdy power-loomed construction, these regal floor fashions offer enduring beauty for today's traditional and transitional interiors.

Available in a range of prices, each of these meticulously recreated designs expresses an appreciation for classic styling while offering an aesthetic that is undeniably made for the dynamics of a present-day household. Power-loomed with the highest quality fibers, all collections highlighted in this brochure provide durability, luxury and polished perfection. Besides the lush comfort, the dense surfaces of these plush area rugs offer inherent benefits such as stain resistance and resilience under furniture and foot traffic.
