COURISTAN

FOUNDATIONAL

MACHINE-MADE COLLECTIONS

A rug can change the entire feel of a room.

Sometimes referred to as “art for your floor”, Couristan believes that the foundation of any great room is a fabulous rug – a timeless piece that can transform any space in which it is placed. For many, the look of a room starts with that very special piece...something that has been chosen with the utmost care and consideration, tying everything together.

Our Foundational collection of rugs run the gamut from traditional to transitional to contemporary, all machine-woven of durable man-made and natural fibers. These collections feature added elements that lend texture and depth to the designs, giving them a handmade finish.

Whether your aesthetic is sleek and modern or rooted in tradition, it all begins with a great foundation.
